SPANISH AND ITALIAN (SPA/ITA)

The department offers programs leading to a major in Spanish, minors in Spanish and Italian, and concentrations in Spanish for Business, Medical Spanish, Spanish Translation/Localization and Spanish Interpreting. The requirements for completion of each degree program are those in effect in the bulletin year when the declaration of the major, minor, and concentration occurs.

All majors, minors, and concentration students are strongly urged to take advantage of the department’s study abroad programs.

Transfer credit in Spanish. For students wishing to transfer credit from other schools towards their major, minor, or concentrations in Spanish, the following general guidelines apply:

- Transfer credit from other institutions must be pre-approved before such courses are taken by students.

  Note: courses must be similar in content and coursework to those listed under Spanish in the Undergraduate Bulletin.

- Course instruction and coursework must be entirely in Spanish.
- No online courses will count towards the major or minor.
- Transfer credit from non-WFU study abroad programs will be approved as 500 or 520 credit.
- Transfer credit approved as 520 will not count towards the major or minor.
- Transfer credit approved as 500 will count as elective credit for the major or minor.
- No more than 3 hours of 500 transfer credit may be counted toward the major or minor.

Intensive Summer Language Institute (ISLI)

Purpose

ISLI is a language immersion program. It offers a curriculum that enables students to achieve the necessary proficiencies in the Spanish language at the beginning-intermediate level and be better prepared to perform in subsequent courses in which they may enroll.

Intensive Summer Language Institute (ISLI) on the Wake Forest Campus:

ISLI on campus offers SPA 153. Intensive Beginning and Intermediate Spanish in an Immersion Setting. (8h) This is an accelerated 5-week course in an immersion setting that is offered in the first summer term. Class size is reduced for individualized instruction. Requirements include daily classes, 6 hours per day; 1-hour daily lunches with instructors in the target language; 2-hour extracurricular activities two evenings per week; two Saturday mornings; housing in the language designated residence hall (optional); and a pledge to speak the target language.

Intensive Summer Language Institute (ISLI) in Italy

Wake Forest conducts a 4-week immersion program in Italian at Casa Artom in Venice. Students enroll in an Italian language course INS 101 (1.5h), and a course on the food, art and culture of Italy in the Mediterranean, is also offered. Weekly excursions to cultural sites in and around Venice are included.

Information on courses offered as part of the Intensive Summer Language Institute is included in the course listings.

Semester or Year in Spain

The department offers a year in Spain at Salamanca, the site of a well-established Spanish university. Students go as a group in the fall and/or spring semesters, accompanied by a professor from the College. No particular major is required for eligibility. However, students:

1. Should normally be of junior standing.
2. Must have completed one course beyond SPA 212 or SPA 213.
3. Should be approved by both their major department and the Department of Spanish and Italian.

Interested students should contact Professor Kathryn Mayers in the Spanish and Italian Department.

As part of the University of Salamanca PEI program (Programa Especial Integrado), students may take regular courses with Spanish students in the following disciplines: anthropology, business, economics, education, linguistics, psychology, and translation/interpretation.

Summer in Spain—Internships

The department offers the opportunity to work at an internship site and receive academic credit during both summer sessions. Internships are available in a wide range of fields (medical, business, teaching, translation, interpretation—see program information at the Office for International Studies and Spanish and Italian websites). An orientation trip to places of cultural and historical interest is optional. Students live with families. The program is offered in Salamanca, the site of a well-established Spanish university and home of the Wake Forest semester or year program in Spain.

No particular major is required for eligibility. However, students must have taken one course beyond 212 or 213 or have permission of instructor. Interested students should contact the program coordinator, Kathryn Mayers, (mayerskm@mayerskm@wfu.edu)@wfu.edu (mayerskm@wfu.edu) in the Department of Spanish and Italian.

Electronic applications are available at the Office for International Studies and Spanish and Italian websites.

To participate in this program, it is required to sign up for a 3-hour internship, because it affords full immersion and a hands-on experience that regular academic courses do not always provide. Also, it is strongly recommended to sign up for one of the following course options.
